

Anime on TV: Monday April 6 - 13

Contributed by NtroP
Tuesday, 07 April 2009

So yeah, I'm now all digital. I'll buy myself Gurren Lagaan for my birthday, the wife already has the first season boxsets of Code Geass that we still have to get through, seen Death Note and Paprika and Witchblade, could care less about Bakugan and... there's just no point anymore.

If Crunchyroll and Funimation can get a 3 day turnaround with english subs for the new Fullmetal Alchemist series, then anything short of the newest of the new on TV will get really old really quickly. This is America's anime consumer culture and we're all getting used to it.

If for any reason your internet goes down or you can't afford internet anymore or you actually haven't seen one of these shows for any reason, then check them out. Meanwhile, I'll be watching Dragonball Kai. Click on "Read More" for full listings.
